Advent through Epiphany November 27 - January 8

This season, we seek a clear, chronological storyline of the events leading up to and following Jesus's birth (or as clear a timeline as the Scriptures provide). We hone in on the human characters involved in the story. We will read from the gospels of Matthew, Luke and John to tell the full scope of the Christmas story. Most weeks, there will also be a reading from the prophet Isaiah from Year A in the lectionary.

From Generation to Generation... reminds us of the ways our lives, histories, actions, and stories are interconnected and woven together. In the midst of narratives, policies, and rhetoric designed to divide us, what does it look like to practice belonging to one another? The work of God is always unfolding— in and through us. This Advent season, how will we carry it forth?

Pastoral Ponderings

The message of Christmas is that God shows up in a human baby. Because of the arrival of that baby, people come together. Mary's family and Joseph's are joined. Grandparents, aunts and uncles are formed. Shepherds arrive. So do the magi. News of this birth even reaches the palace in Jerusalem.

The message of Christmas is that God shows up in a human baby. When the baby grows up, he brings people together. Some are threatened by him and join together to oppose and destroy him, but more join his mission -- bringing good news to the poor and proclaiming release to the captives and embodying the reign of God on earth.

The message of Christmas passes from one generation to the next to the next until now. Brought together by Jesus, we are here, recognizing God who became flesh and dwelt among us, and whom we now sometimes glimpse in each there.

Where I Saw God last

The dimple in your right cheek,
the child playing peek-a-boo from his stroller,
the abuelita who spends her afternoons in the park by 86th; the teenagers on the subway who cannot control their laughter; Neil, my neighbor, who always asks about you, the mother who whispers a dozen times a day, "thank you, Jesus, thank you, Jesus, thank you, Jesus"; the saxophone player at 42nd street, the poets,
the artists, the garden volunteers; the metro car driver who sticks his head out the window to make sure we're all aboard; the man who gave up his seat on the subway, the kid in the dinosaur pajamas who cannot be convinced they're not school attire; the teachers, the nurses, the taxi cab drivers;
the woman at the end of the block with her yappy dogs and her books in the window, the lovers that lay sprawled out on park blankets, the runners, the daydreamers, the sidewalk chalk artists;
John from upstairs whose favorite flowers are yellow tulips, the Persian man at the grocery who tells me to be safe when I leave, my grandmother in Georgia; my neighbor, the stranger; thank you, Jesus, thank you, Jesus, thank you, Jesus.

We appreciate the work of Karen Green and Marilyn Malone in stitching the season's logo into this banner currently hanging in the sanctuary. You may see this graphic several times this season.

To some people, it looks like a rose. Others immediately see the people in a circle. The artist, Lauren Wright Pittman says "I knew I wanted to emphasize the particularity of each person while imaging how their story fits into a larger narrative—one in line with the generative work of God. I drew simplified silhouettes of people in a radial fashion, positioned around a center point. At once this imagery took on a depth of meaning: the lineage of Christ centered around his light, the nativity scene centered around the manger, and the larger movement of God through each and every created being—radiating and growing like a flower. Ultimately, the image represents how we are all connected, our stories are woven together, and each of us has a purpose in the beauty of God's continued unfolding creation."

Calling All Singers... and Bakers!

Last year Emmanuel folks sang to many homebound members and brought smiles to their faces at Christmas time. On December 10, we will once again go caroling and deliver plants, luminaries and homemade treats to homebound members. Please consider being part of this exciting ministry. All ages are invited!

Please sign up at church or by calling the church office. We will meet at the church to organize routes and deliveries and to pick up the gifts that will be delivered. Questions? Contact Karen Green. (KG)

Last year's carolers who sang to Pat Campbell.

We need your help in the cookies and candies department! If you can donate some of your homemade goodies, please contact Edith Leet at 518-482-6612. We ask that you put your cookies in bags of three and bring them to church by December 4. If you can help put together the packages during the week before December 10, please let Edith know that also. We are looking forward to a joyous time of fellowship that you won't want to miss. (el)

Can You Pass "The Christmas Quiz"?

We all know "the Christmas Story," right? Well, the scriptures tell a story we may not be as familiar with as we think. Only the Gospels of Matthew and Luke mention details about the birth of Jesus. And the two versions are VERY different.

Much of what we think of when we say "the Christmas story" isn't in the Bible at all. What are we missing? If the scripture stories aren't historically true, can they still contain Truth? Are the stories of the birth of Jesus still relevant?

According to the scriptures:

- Q: How many sheep were in the stable with baby Jesus?
A: How many preschoolers are in a children's Christmas pageant?
- Q: How many kings brought gifts to the baby Jesus?
A: None. The Bible doesn't call them kings, and it never says how many there were.
- Q: Who got there first the night Jesus was born, the shepherds or the wise men (magi)?
A: Only Matthew mentions wise men (magi). Only Luke mentions shepherds. They were never depicted as together at the manger in scripture. Extra credit if you re-read Matthew 2 and identify the location where the wise men brought their gifts.

On Sunday mornings, Nov. 27 and Dec. 4 and 11, at 11:30 a.m. in the parlor, Rev. Jim Ketcham will help us learn the Biblical answers to "The Christmas Quiz." (But we can still put the wise men in our nativity scenes if we want to.)

THRIVE Program to Promote Work of Antiracism

The Alliance of Baptists, which created the THRIVE project that Emmanuel is part of, will present a webcast on December 6 from 7-8:30 p.m. called “Knowing Your Church’s Past—Bringing Justice: What are the next steps for your church?” It is designed to help churches make the work of antiracism a fundamental part of their identity and outreach.

A presentation by Dr. Andrew Gardner will be followed by small-group discussions.

Dr. Gardner is a Postdoctoral Research Associate at Baylor University and is on the board of the Alliance of Baptists. He is the author of Reimagining Zion: A History of the Alliance of Baptists and Binkley: A Congregational History (2022).

Nominating Committee Seeks Volunteers

Emmanuel’s Nominating Committee is currently at work finding people to be on our Executive Team and committees for the next year. Please let us know if you are interested.

The Executive Team is 12-16 people who meet once a month to oversee the church’s programs and services and to handle any questions or issues that arise. Each member of the ET is asked to take leadership in a particular area of church activity, including the categories of Connections & Sharing, Hospitality, Lifelong Faith Formation, Mission, Property & Financial Management, and Worship. Members are expected to recruit people from the congregation to carry out specific programs such as the recent Pre-Advent Party or Christmas Caroling.

The Executive Team’s work also includes looking ahead to envision what Emmanuel might be and do in future years and to take the steps now that will enable Emmanuel to make those visions a reality. If you enjoy planning, creating, exploring new possibilities, and seeing “the big picture,” you might be just the person we need on our Executive Team. If you are happier working on a specific project or cannot commit to a year-round responsibility, please let us know. You would be very valuable as one of the “recruits” that make things happen.

To let us know what interests you and how you would like to take part, please contact Karen Green at 518-436-1876, Nancy Horan at 518-605-5763, Edith Leet at 518-482-6612, or Maria Townes-Covington at 781-710-7675. You can also leave a note in the church office. We look forward to hearing from you. (EL)

Civil Rights Memorial

Civil Rights Pilgrimage Postponed

The Civil Rights Pilgrimage planned for February has been postponed. We are disappointed in the delay, but still very enthusiastic about taking the trip. The projected itinerary includes a week of travel with visits to significant sites in Atlanta, Birmingham, Montgomery, Selma and Tuskegee. We want to go in-person because books and movies are not the same as being there. We want to go together because this trip has the potential to make transformative impressions of our racial history and the potential to bond the participants in lasting ways.

One of the reasons for the postponement is to make sure the opportunity is offered to as many participants as possible. The trip will happen either in August 2023 (one of the first two weeks) or February 17-24, 2024. The delay gives us more time to raise funds as well as to lock-in lower airfare. We are seeking some grant funds and other creative financing. If you want to go, please do not let the financial cost be a barrier. Talk with one of us about what is possible. If you are interested in going, please speak with Jean Burton or Jim Wilkerson or Pastor Kathy as soon as possible, no later than January 1, 2023.
